TAGLINE

Writers always write...

ONE-LINER

A screenwriter finds himself in trouble when some scripts and scenarios he's been writing turn out not to be so alluring after all.

SHORT-SYNOPSIS

A screenwriter writes scripts, and then pays prostitutes to reenact the stories with his involvement. Sometimes they know the full story, and sometimes they don't. By giving different hookers different scripts, the screenwriter tries to create real-world scenarios so that he can live-out his words and ideas.

LONG-SYNOPSIS

A screenwriter writes scripts, and then pays prostitutes to reenact the stories with his involvement. Sometimes they know the full story, and sometimes they don't. By giving different hookers different scripts, the screenwriter tries to create real-world scenarios so that he can live-out his words and ideas. Though he's built up a reputation among the solicitor community, after a few tries at this, his downfall might be his own imagination and planning.

WRITER/DIRECTOR/PRODUCER BIOGRAPHY

Ryan Anthony
Writer / Director / Producer
AnthonyDigitalMedia.com

Born in Pittsburgh, PA, Ryan began his career in creative writing before transitioning into animation and film. He now produces video, film, and photography mediums, as well as most forms of visual communication, for media outlets, advertising agencies, and production companies (such as NBC & Walmart). He's produced and directed multiple, regional and national advertising campaigns and is a published comic writer.

Ryan earned his Master of Fine Arts degree (M.F.A.) in Film from Miami International University of Art and Design, and a Bachelor of Science degree (B.S.) in Media Arts and Animation from The Art Institute of Fort Lauderdale. He also attended the Sundance Institute ShortsLab Miami.

WRITER/DIRECTOR/PRODUCER STATEMENT

The idea for Now Playing came to me as a writing experiment to reveal the ironies in real-world situations and the idea of having someone's hobby become their work, then their work becomes their desire; infusing it with sexual fantasy. And having the thought of a workaholic being so obsessed with his product that he becomes his own research experiment, delving into his sexual and violent appetite. With a classic approach to cinematography, and a stylized approach to the lighting scheme, I played with the screenwriting techniques of setups and payoffs, as well as the practice of keeping the audience constantly guessing by leaving them in the dark.
